

CMI 706 – Finance for Strategic Leaders

Course Outline

- Understanding financial strategy and its link to organizational objectives - Analyzing financial statements and performance metrics - Evaluating investment appraisals and risk assessment - Developing strategic financial plans and budgets - Managing financial resources for sustainable growth - Understanding the financial implications of strategic decisions

Course Outcomes

By the end of this module, learners will be able to: - Critically evaluate financial data to inform strategic decisions. - Understand how financial strategies align with organizational goals. - Apply financial tools and techniques to analyze business performance. - Develop and justify strategic financial plans and budgets. - Assess the financial risks and opportunities associated with business growth.