

Module 5: Professional Development & Ethics for Trainers

Course Outlines

- Introduction to professional ethics and trainer responsibilities
- Understanding ethical dilemmas in training environments
- Promoting inclusivity and diversity in learning contexts
- Building and maintaining professional credibility
- Developing a lifelong learning mindset
- Leadership skills for trainers and educators
- Creating personal and professional development plans
- Engaging in mentorship and peer collaboration
- NEN's standards of excellence and certification readiness

Course Outcomes

By the end of this module, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate ethical behavior and professionalism in training settings
- Apply inclusive practices that support diverse learner needs
- Develop a personalized career growth and development plan
- Exhibit leadership and mentorship within the training community
- Maintain continuous self-improvement through lifelong learning

- Meet NEN's professional standards for certified trainers